Celebration of St. Aloysius Gonzaga 1568-1591

Each year on June 21st the Church universal celebrates the Feast of St. Aloysius Gonzaga. This year the Feast of our patron Saint falls on Friday. We will be celebrating this Feast Day on the weekend of June 22-23, 2019. Last year, we had a very successful Pot-Luck dinner after the 4 p.m. Mass in his honor. We will repeat that again this year, too. The date is June 22, 2019. The place is the Church Hall. Since St. Aloysius was Italian and of Italian Royalty (remember his name is Luigi) we are asking you to bring Italian dishes, for the most part, for our celebration. Last year we were entertained by the Connecticut Trio; this year we have a traveling accordionist who plays beautiful Italian music, as well as music from other nationalities. Sign up sheets for the Pot-Luck in honor of St. Aloysius are on the tables at the entrances of the Church.

St. Aloysius Refurbished

The statue of St. Aloysius, as I said last week, was on vacation being refurbished in time for his Feast Day, June 21st. As you see he has a prominent place in the Sanctuary for the month of June. He has been completely primed and repainted to last for the next 75 years. According to his biographical descriptions he had black hair. He is highlighted with gold-leaf, giving him a particular saintly look. Please enjoy him in the sanctuary and offer many prayers asking for his intercessions.
